Date: [19/08/2024]

Dress Code: [Ethnic wear]

We kindly request your child's participation in this event.

This rally is a wonderful opportunity for students to learn about and appreciate the ancient language that has greatly influenced many aspects of our culture and traditions.

Please ensure your child is dressed appropriately for the rally. We look forward to it from your ward to support in making this event a success.

Thank you

In loving memory of Late Shree. G C Surana we start “Annapoorna Movement” of this year.

As part of this charity initiative, our students have started collecting food grains and pulses from their homes, contributing towards helping those in need. Together, we strive to make a difference and spread the joy of giving.

Students are requested to earn the food grain and pulses by helping the parents, Neighbour, or relatives. Collected items should be submitted to the school from 11th to 18th September 2024. Students who contributed 10kg will be receiving the certificate. Names of contributor of 5 kg to 9.9 kg will be announced in the assembly by Principal sir.

Please mention the following on the bag

Student name
